

Eden Announces Acquisition of New Team

30 June 2008

Eden Financial Ltd is to be joined by an experienced equity team from Insinger de Beaufort. The team of six, led by Elliott Shaw, brings experience in equity investment and derivatives products, and over £200 million in assets to Eden.

Elliott Shaw, with over twenty years experience of trading and investments, offers high net worth and institutional clients professional broking capabilities and high level market advice.

Stephen Massey, Chairman of Eden Financial said "the acquisition of this Insinger team marks an important point in the growth of Eden. We are delighted to have recruited a team of this calibre to Eden and to have reached the important milestone of £1bn in assets under administration and management. I am delighted to welcome Elliott and his team who bring great experience in equity and derivatives trading for private clients and a high-quality pan-European execution service for Swiss Banks and other institutions."

Ends.
